“ Mom, first Christmas without you. I already miss not trying to figure out what to get for you. You can have my enduring love and know that you are and will always be missed. Please look after Wendy and Steven, give dad my love and tell Scotty I wish I would have had more time to know him better, Until we meet together along side the road where Dad waits.

“ My sympathies and prayers to Raye Jean's family. I am sorry I did not get to her surprise birthday party. Getting older means health issues and not doing what you would like to do. Your mom, Anne Nagle, and I were almost inseparable as pre-teens. Then boys entered the picture and we girls did not get together very often. I was the last of the trio to get married (I enjoyed being single), but my husband and I just celebrated our 60th Anniversary. It can be done. I can tell you we always had a good time, and we were crazy teenagers doing all the crazy things 50's teens did. Our parents thought we were bad???. In those times I guess we were. I know RJ suffered with bad health in recent years, but she is at peace and I know she and Jim are glad to be together again and being with other family members. I hope her Mom is not scolding her all the time. God Bless the Lasher family as you carry on
