“ Ray was one of the best men I ever knew and I was fortunate to have met a few good men in my time growing up in Lebanon City and eventually working there for most of my life.

I got to know him even better after I married my wife Pat and became part of the family.

He was very fortunate like I am to married the "Best Wife in the World"

He worked very hard in his lifetime in a very difficult line of work, the iron and steel businesses, that were in and around Lebanon City back in the day.

A great sense of humor and a great husband and father.

He will be missed but always remembered...

Russ and Pat

“ I will never forget the joy that was in my dad’s face whenever Ray would call and say he’s making a pie delivery! Ray would bring Maggie’s pumpkin pie and other treats for dad, like peanut butter eggs from his sister Nadine and Ray and Maggie! Then the two brothers would sit and talk and tease each other for a long time. Ray was such a smart, interesting man. I would just love hearing all of the stories of their childhood. I will miss Ray and his easy going way.
