“ I have fond memories of visits and picnics at Aunt Reba and Uncle Bill's house in Rexmont. My brother Joel and I loved the location and the fact that she had cats running around outside. We always felt welcome and happy to be there.

I also remember how proud she was of her grandson, Jason. She showed me some artistic pictures she took of him but I've forgotten how old he was at the time.. I was very impressed by her photography skills.

She and Bill faithfully visited my grandparents, Warren and Elsie Wise so we saw her frequently because we lived right next store.

I was glad to have known her.
