“ *What memories came as I read this obit I grew up as their neighbor. Oh the special times we had. Helping with mailings , gardening, catching Japanese beetles sharing recipes among so many other things.
I thought all neighbors were like those on Dogwood Drive. They aren't and weren't.
Blessings to you all.

“ Dick was not just a member of St. Paul's Church but a wonderful pillar. He served as trustee and Bible study leader. Even after he was past those positions he still served as a lay scripture reader in the worship services. Though his legs were beginning to fail him he would walk to the front of the sanctuary to read his beloved Bible in that deep strong voice of his. I was his Sunday School teacher but he remembered more scripture than I ever knew. Always smiling, always kind, his prayer each morning was "Who shall I serve today and how should I serve them?"

“ I worked with him at the PPL Ephrata Service Center in the 80's and he was such a nice man. When he retired I took over the area his crews worked in. He. Will be remembered by all the men working there as a very nice friend and knowledgeable in his work on the Electrical Lines.
