“ We have the best memories of Dick golfing at Appledale. After playing an early round of golf with Devon Bowman, he shared humorous stories and sayings...many of which came from his Mother. The love for his wife and daughters was the highlight of all conversations. I can still see his S10 pick up or Volkswagen beetle parked in the lot. His humor and good nature, evident when he brought our youngest son coconut covered marshmallow cakes on several occasions, were appreciated and always made the day better.

Our sympathy to your family and our thanks for sharing a memorable person.
