“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the Mohn family whom I may have met once or twice, except Gerry. I know all of them through Rich. He always talked highly of all of them. Once Chase came along he would tell me of all of his great interactions with his grandson. When I heard of Rich's passing I got the same feeling as when my own father passed away. He was a mentor, teacher and father figure to several of us in the maintenance shop at the sawmill. We would often call him pop or dad. There were quite a few repair jobs we worked on together that were deemed unrepairable, and till this day are still in service and running strong. He was an expert welder, fabricator and craftsman. He taught me so much. Rich was honorable, respectful, had true integrity and was a real gentleman. My only regret is I wish I had stayed in contact with him after his retirement. I will always remember all the fun times he and I had working together, and that special laugh of his. I will forever feel blessed to have known him. May you rest in peace and God bless you, my friend Rich Mohn...

“ Ahhh, Uncle Richie, my heart hurts. I'm going to miss your stories, your visits to work and your smiling face. I know you had your aches and pains, all part of the getting old process. Rest in Peace, hope all the aches are better now.
Karen, Randy, Beth Ann, Tracey and Chase, my heartfelt condolences. Hold the good times close.
Love you all, Janice (Jenny) Saphore-Roth
