“ I'm Lee's adopted little sister. He was 18 years older than me, so he left home when I was very young. I still remember him working on our grandparents' farm, milking cows. I was the flower girl in his and Garnet's wedding. I have many memories of picking fruit and vegetables at Garnet's parents' farm, dinners with Lee and Garnet at their home next door and I remember when Lisa and Rich were born. I last saw everyone when I attended Lisa's wedding years ago. I know he lived a full, rich life. He was a star football player back in the day.
