“ I just found out that Dick passed, I'm devastated. I knew Dick from visiting NYC and we stayed in touch over the years. He was a gentleman and a class act.
I'm so sorry to hear that he has passed.

“ Richard was always so kind to my friend and I when we visited Brooklyn from Scotland. Made the best eggnog and wonderful meals. He used to draw up itineraries for us, places to go, where to have lunch etc.. he would take us to craft stores and was very patient while we spent hours browsing. Miss you Richard. X

“ Dick was a dear friend, neighbor and co-worker at Leading Hotels of the World. He embodied 'hospitality' as a generous host in his private life and a trusted mentor to numerous newbies to luxury travel careers. He loved our Brooklyn neighborhood and I am reminded of him daily wherever I go. Miss you, Dick, rest in peace.
Toasting you with your friends and neighbors.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Dick Moyer for many years at LHW. He had such a great sense of humor, and always made everyone feel welcome. He was so smart and knew the member hotels so well. He always recommended places to check out when staying at a member hotel. Dick was so direct and honest about everything. We use to talk about American Idol and TV shows during our lunch break. Every time I saw him, he always had a smile on his face and made an effort to talk to everyone. Rest in paradise, Dick - we miss you!

“ I didn't work directly for LHW. The Resort I worked for leased space in their offices for 14 years, and this is how we met.

I find myself so very fortunate that I had the pleasure of getting to know Dick Moyer.

Always the epitome of a Gentleman!! He was a kind and gentle soul with a great sense of humor, who always found time to stop and ask how your day was going, no matter how busy he was. And at their Holiday Parties, which we were always invited to, he took such pleasure and joy in giving out complimentary stays to the LHW employees that were fortunate enough to win some of these amazing gifts.

Rest in Peace Dick and Thank You for being part of my world for a bit! I will forever remember your kindness and your great smile! 🙏🙏
