“ Ulrich Family,
May god bless your family in this time of sorrow. Please accept my sympathy.
Dick, you have been a large part of my mom's life for the last twelve years. Thank you for creating happy memories with her that she will always cherish and thank you for loving her.
My family will miss you.

Dick: I certainly will miss our talks, game night, watching movies at your place and going to dances. The last days I spent with you were very special to me. I will never forget you and the fun all of us had together.
