Rita is my cousin, my friend and like a big Sis to me. Her Mom babysat me and my little sis when my Mom had to work for a while. Rita dragged me around , played with me and taught me things. As time went by we became closer, and stronger in our relationship. She knew she could trust me and I her. One day RiRI (I called her) took me to me Nick. I loved that boy the minute I saw him. Rita had been explaining that she really liked him and it was a secret. So I kept it and after we walked around for a while with him, he had to go. We said goodbye and RiRI and I went home too. Before we got to the house I told her that I thought he was amazing and she needed to marry him because I wanted him to be a part of my family. Thankfully she had already thought that way too and the two of them were are and always will be a part of my heart. I love them both more than words can say. I have no doubt they are together right now. I miss you both so much but am so glad you are home , together and I will see you again soon.

“ I remember the summers when we come up and we take Rita with us when we went to Hershey’s and the fun we had and then when she was dating, Nick Jim and I were up there and we would go out together the four of us and had a such a good time And then I’d only see them when we would come north or they’d come down and then when they moved here, then at the holidays, we all got together with our other cousins at my house and had dinner and then we play cards. I have such wonderful memories of her and Nick we miss her but I know she’s in a better place and she’s no longer having issues health issues I loved her so much .
