“ Some fondest memories of Uncle Bobby were horseback riding at his place. He was a great teacher. I remember him yelling for me to pull back on the reins as the horse was galloping to the barn with me holding on for dear life. We would then have some of Aunt Patty's delicious corn pie and enjoy the company. He also made the best ham for our family reunions. As a kid I would spend some time in the summer at Aunt Patty and Uncle Bobs's. Ono always seemed a million miles away from Palmyra. Through a child's eyes at least. RIP Uncle Bob.
