

Robert A. Hess

November 19, 1928 - February 24, 2013

Robert A. Hess, 84, of Jonestown, passed away on Sunday, February 24, 2013, at his home. He was the husband of Shirley A. Longenecker Hess, and in April, they would have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. Born in Lebanon, on November 19, 1928, he was the son of the late Austin V., and Laura Reager Hess. He retired in 1973 from the US Army after 26 years of service, serving in the Navy, Army and the National Guard. He was the one of the founders of Nuclear Support Services, Inc., where he served as Senior Vice President, Vice President of Corporate Development, a member of the Executive Committee, and a Director. In 1982 he founded and was the owner and operator of Sycamore Spring Orchard & Farm Market in N. Annville Twp., which he ran with his family. In addition to his wife, he is survived by his son Glen R. Hess and his wife Joan of Jonestown; daughters Linda S. wife of Kenneth M. Johnson and Kathleen F. wife of William G. Eisenhower both of Jonestown; brothers Richard Hess of Myerstown and John Hess of Hanover; sister Peg Margut of Lebanon; grandchildren Melissa, Eric, Jessica, Matthew, Robert and Amanda and 8 great grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at the convenience of the family. Kreamer & Lum Funeral Home & Crematory, Jonestown, was in charge of the arrangements. www.kreamerlumfh.com

PDF Printable Version