“ R.I.P Bob. Lost track of you and just learned of your passing. you were an inspiration to many on the outer Banks. Gandalfs was an excellent place to stop, eat and chat. You are missed by us who have had the pleasure of spending time with you.
Sincerely, Angela and Jim Robinson

“ I moved to Nagshead when I was in 6th grade and met Bob who was a friend of my stepfather, Michael. I loved hanging out with Bob and Jan. Bobs personality was magical and he always took time to play with me and talk to me. My favorite memory was fishing with him on amd Oregon Inlete. Bob and Jan were close friends with my Mom and Michael and I'd love when they would visit. Bob and Michael would talk about life, NY, cooking, and their trip to the Venezuelan jungle. Thank you for the memories Bob. I miss you.

“ I have missed my Uncle Donald Duck for a long time already. To find this now, after so long, it's heat breaking. I miss the Count Monte Cristo sandwiches, his caesar salad, soho sodas. Mostly I miss his laugh. And now I know I will always be missing it.
