“ I spent 14 years married to Ron. Because of him, I got to see beautiful places. I watched his position in the Army grow. I am happy in the past couple years we became friends again. We had such good times facetimeing. He was a special person. He gave me 2 beautiful daughters which I will always be grateful for. R.i.P Ron. Now you are at peace and reunited with your wife. My heartfelt condolences to all his family. May God Bless

“ Well Ron, we gave it a hell of a run over the past 40 years. Lots of pool, ansbach, good food and good times. Charlotte and I had a blast with you in our lives and having you be part of our family. If it all works out, I can't wait for us to meet again in the future. Thanks for everything and rest in peace buddy. Good luck on your journey....
