

Rose Ginder (Erla Rose Ginder)

April 4, 1930 - June 8, 2016

Rose Ginder (Erla Rose Ginder), 86, of Cleona, passed away on June 8, 2016 at her residence. She was the wife of the late Paul W. Ginder, who passed away in 2005.

Born in Cornwall on April 4, 1930, she was the daughter of the late George and Hattie Dietz Beard. Rose was a factory worker at Hershey Foods and Kraft Foods. She was a member of Fontana United Christian Church, Lebanon. She bowled for local leagues from Palmyra and Cedar Lanes and she had also bowled in county, state, and national tournaments. She was a devoted score keeper for county tournaments as well as the Lebanon Dutchmen Bowling Tournament. She was an avid Phillies fan and enjoyed, playing Bingo, baking, and crocheting.

She is survived by her loving daughter Rochelle Manuel of Cleona, a brother John Beard and his wife Margaret of Lebanon and special friends, Susan Burd and Audrey Blauch. She was preceded in death by her brothers: Robert, Kenneth, James, and George.

Special thanks to Susan, Audrey and Ray for all your support. All your help over the years, especially the last few months has been greatly appreciated.

Thank you to Compassionate Care Hospice. I don't know what I would have done without Lauren and Beth. – Rochelle Manuel -

Graveside services will be held on Tuesday June 14, 2016 at 1:30PM at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery, Annville, PA. A procession will form at Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory Inc., 618 E. Main Street, Annville at 1:00PM.

“ Aunt Rose , May you rest in peace now with Uncle Paul. I will remember our trip to the Phillies game where we were sitting that high up I thought we were at the stairway to heaven. And also the time you and uncle Paul walked into the wrong house thinking you were at my mom and dads place. Wonderful memories to treasure forever. God Bless. Your niece, Joanne
