“ Aunt Rose always with a smile on her face. Full of life and always ready to put her delicious cooking and baking on the table. A jolly and beautiful soul. She is now with Uncle Fred and without question will be missed even though I live in Mexico. I truly loved her my Aunt Rose!

Aunt Rose will always be remembered & In my heart as a very caring, giving warm heart.

As we all called her Aunt Rose, those who knew her, will always remember not only her big smile but how she would receive everyone with open arms knowing that we could always count on having a wonderful time with her & Uncle Fred eating a delicious meal, laughing & having much fun with her & Uncle Fred. They made of their children good loving generous human beings as they now are the reflection of their parents, caring, loving & full of life for others, always sharing their family, talents, & joy for life making of this world a betterment for those in need.

My fondest memories of my childhood was when we would go visit from Mexico my mothers family and we would always be greeted with open arms filled of much love & very happy moments together as a family they always made us feel.

Aunt Rose was & will continue to be the legacy her parents & her brother left her so that the younger generations will always remember & keep in our hearts what they came to plant in this their new country & home coming from the Old World & allowed many of us to do & be who we each have become through hard work, with strong values to do what we learned from example, as what was handed down to many of us from our family heritage. Thank you Aunt Rose. May you Rest In Peace alongside your parents, brothers, husband, as we will continue to do our best in following your footsteps. ❤️ Elizabeth Ann Almaraz Scanlin the granddaughter of one of your sisters, Catherine Perlaki. Nana called me Beth Ann. I was born in Lebanon, Penna, lived in Mexico & once married living in Texas. (and still emigrating with my 2 children who live in NY City & LA, California as the Perlaki heritage continues with the examples my great grandparents began coming across from the old world, thanks to them)

Rest In Peace 🙏❤️

“ *Aunt Rose was always my favorite aunt. She took wonderful care of her mother (my nanny for years). We went to visit her every Saturday afternoon and she always baked some delicious pie or cake and often made "mush" for me and my mom. Thank you for that love and care, Aunt Rose, and God bless you

“Rose was a lovely lady. I visited her and Fred, her husband, for many years in their home and then at the Lebanon Valley Homes. I have not seen Rose for awhile due to this Covid. She was a very spiritual woman and I pray she is with the God she loved and served all these years. Every year on my birthday she would make me a Raisin pie which I thoroughly enjoyed. May she rest in peace with Fred her beloved husband . Sincerely, Deacon Richard Wentzel
