“ So many memories have been going through my head in the past week, mom. Some of my fondest are watching you prepare those wonderful dinners you always cooked for the family; your culinary expertise inspired my interest in cooking. I know I would not be where I am today without your patient but firm guidance mom, and the love and care you showed us and sacrifices you made for us as a devoted mother will remain in our hearts and souls forever... always loved , never forgotten... May enjoy everlasting peace and love with your beloved...
Your son, always...
