“ To the Gingrich Family,
Memories, memories, I have of Roy and Luella! I always hunted them up at the Annual General Conferences of the Dunkard Brethren Church. Roy was always talking scripture and had a reason for his thinking. He stood for the right and condemned the wrong.
I feel sad that I never visited their home, but when looking at the videos I feel I was there.
I didn't know that Roy was failing in health. Certainly he is at rest with his God and enjoying the peace and the beautiful views of heaven!
Take care, dear Luella! We will remember you in prayer. I have for several years wanted to send a greeting, but the mail was always returned to me. Someone from the Bethel Cong. gave me an address, but it too was returned.
Our sympathy goes out to the family and especially to Luella at this time in your sorrow.
God's grace is sufficient for you! TRUST HIM!
Your friends,
