“ Dear Toto (Sal), it seems like just yesterday I waved hello to you in the back of the shop, as you were cooking, and you'd turn around and wave back energetically, or come out to the hallway to greet me with a warm hug and ask how I am and if I was happy. 26 years of seeing you as a friend to my family and your God Daughter, Julie, who also loved you very much. All your kind gestures and gifts were deeply appreciated always. You are like a straight arrow, bound for heaven for sure. I will always remember your stories about when you first came to America, Italy, and your beloved first wife, Rosa, who died of cancer so long ago. All my best to Anthony, Maria, Sal, and Vito. May you rest in peace now. Te amo. - Your friend, Cathy
