“ We loved Sandy so much and are so sad that she is gone. She is gone but certainly not forgotten. We look forward to seeing her, and Little Jeremy at the Resurrection! We know that she is resting next to her son until then. My fondest memory of Sandy, it is hard to choose just one, is her extreme love of teddy bears! She loved them and collected many different sizes, shapes and types. Her best Teddy Bear of course, was her Big Bear, Jeremy, the love of her life. Jeremy, I am so sad for your loss and I pray that Yahweh will comfort you until you are reunited with your wife and son in the Kingdom! Aside from being a collector, Sandy was a super housewife, as evidenced by her email address, Keepers@homeforyahweh. Her house was always immaculate and that is a huge tribute to her character. We loved you, Sandy, and can't wait to see you again!

“Jeremy, I was so shocked to hear of Sandra's passing. She was a very special friend to me, I will never forget the time I rushed to her house at 6 in the morning because there was a bat flying around in my house and I was scared to stay there with my boys. She invited us to stay with her at her tiny apartment, and the next thing I knew my boys who could not have been older than 5 and 7 were jumping on her bed. I scolded them about it and Sandra said it is ok, and she proceeded to get up on the bed and jump with them. Then she said look this is fun. Sandra and I had a special bond and we did everything together, we shared our love of roses and the color of pink. I was blessed to have such a good friend, even though our lives had taken many turns and the miles seperated us, we have remained close friends. Sandra always was a beautiful angel now she will be in heaven looking over us. Sandra you will be missed very much.....
