“Grandma Sandy- you are so very loved by so many. And were my “official” step-grandma for my formidable years but never stopped being my grandma even in to adulthood. So many memories of being at your house for family gatherings. Watching grandpa and Brad eat mincemeat pie, shrimp making, card playing, homemade ice cream, and you taking me to get my wisdom teeth out laughing at me while I laughed about the woodgrain trim in your car when coming out of anesthesia and you making sure I had plenty of bags of frozen peas to put on my face while you nursed me back to normal on your couch. And even as early as last year, visiting my dad at camp knowing he was sick and wouldn't be here much longer. That truly meant so much to him. You're one of the most beautiful ladies I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. I love you.
