“ I help in Mrs. Landis Kindergarten class and we all loved "Grandma Keller". She always had a smile on her face and loved the children. We miss her greatly but I think of her often. My prayers are with you all and know that her suffering is over and we will see her again some day.

“ My dearest Aunt Snook. One strong lady with a smile that could brighten a room. Always there when I needed her. I always respected her. My heart is filled with fun memories and yet sadness at the same time. May God's loving arms embrace her family at this most difficult time.

Love, your niece Dee
