“ To Woody and Sandy's family , my most sincere condolences on your loss! As children growing up, we were playmates, when each of our aunts[who were cousins) took us under their wing and dragged us along to the swimming hole for many summers. We grew close and became good friends as a result. We reacquainted later in life at LHS. She was a lovely, special person and will be missed by all who were fortunate to have known her!
With genuine sincere sympathy,

May God comfort and bless you all in the coming day as you journey together. When a parent dies a void is left that only God can fill with the help of family and friends.
