“ Mom, my shining star of live. I miss you more than you can ever know You were my world and without my little world is so empty. You taught me how to be strong, honest and a good person just like you. I hope I have made you and daddy proud. You would love your new great grandson Colton. He is a survivor born at 26 weeks. But I know you are watching over both he and Noah. You are their Nannie and I tell them both you are always there. Keep them safe and Colton healthy and strong. Miss you so much. It is very lonely as my sisters have changed, especially the older one. I don't know what happened to her. We are so different. Stay watching over me please and guiding me to make the right decisions. Much Love your Petunia

“ When my mom passed away on Dec 1st her death put a hole in my heart that can never be filled. She was my best friend and the only person in this world that really knew me and the person that I was. I was her Christmas baby and every year she would tell me about her being in the hospital on Christmas eve and I did,nt want to come out till it was Christmas. She said I planed it that way..LOL. I love you forever my beautiful wonderful mommy. Your Debbie.
