“ Susan, my dear precious friend, you are in my heart as you go through the passing of your mother. My mind drifts back over the last few years and I think of the many times you spoke to me about your mother with such sweetness and love. The weekly visits to give a pedicure or just drop by for a quick hug. I am so thankful that you had this time together. You are my friend but you feel more like a sister,,,God works in mysterious way :o) He knew that we needed each other. So my dear friend as you say goodbye to your mother remember that she has no more pain, no more sadness, no more trials on this earth. She will be awaiting with open arms for her family to join her in everlasting peace with our Lord. My prayer is that on that precious day your entire family (me too :o)) will be present. Now that will be "One Fine Day" All my love (all the time)

“ I have so many happy memories of my dear Aunt Sarah. Especially memorable are Thanksgiving celebrations and many 'sleepovers' at the big old house on Railroad Street. She was always so thoughtful through the years, writing newsy letters with her birthday cards, despite the pain she had from arthritis. Love to you, Uncle Harold, Hal, Bob and Sue. May you feel God's presence with you in the coming days. With love and prayers, Kathy (and Peter)

“ Aunt Sarah and Uncle Harold were my favorite people when I was a child. They kissed, they laughed, and they danced in the kitchen. Their home and family were joy to me. She freely gave hugs to her little neices. I am grateful for her life and influence. I pray her children and husband be comforted by the presence and love of God at this time.
