

Scott T. "Pi" McEntire

November 12, 1953 - March 24, 2026

Scott T. "Pi" McEntire, 72, of Cleona, PA passed away on Tuesday, March 24th, 2026, at his residence.

Born on November 12th, 1953, he was the son of the late Graham and Miriam (Thomas) McEntire. Scott LOVED the beach. He always looked forward to the annual Wildwood Beach trip with his family. However, Scott's first love was his family, and maybe even most of all, his grandchildren. They were his WORLD and will continue to be. They were his first concern every single moment from the day they were born until the day that he passed. He was so proud of all their accomplishments and knew their futures would be bright.

After retirement, Scott loved working at AutoZone where all of his fellow employees were "top notch" as he would say. He also enjoyed playing video games, and his love for sports was unmatched. He was always looking up scores. He loved keeping track of the weather and keeping his family updated on what was coming for the week. Scott was kind, humble, and ALWAYS a happy guy. His empathy and compassion for others were immense. He was happy to be in a place in his life to finally have nice things and be proud of himself.

Scott is survived by his daughter, Amanda R. Gable, wife of Kyle of Lebanon, his son, Scott C. McEntire, two sisters, Ann Zimmerman, wife of Jeff of Florida, Jean Hilldale, wife of Dan of New York, and three grandchildren, Caitlin Gable, Alyssa Gable, and Skylar McEntire.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 11:00AM on Wednesday, April 1st, 2026,

“ There are old knights and bold knights but few old, bold knights like Scott. He was a dedicated family man and lit up the room whenever he walked in. It was a pleasure to get to know him. May he be missed but never forgotten. Thoughts and prayers are with the McEntire and Gable families.
