“ I met Sean through working st Pilot Flying J. He made my life better with pur talks about life or just hanging out before I had work. He took me hiking to a spot with a beautiful view despite my fear of heights. He always made me laugh and I will miss him terribly.

“ Although we lived close by for many years, I only got to know Sean this summer through the love of our dogs who would romp and play together. The dogs became friends and so did Sean and I. He was such a polite young man, and we talked as the dogs played. He spoke of his love of family and how he enjoyed going to the games of his nieces and nephews.

My deepest condolences to Donna, Ray, Elizabeth, Dustin, and all of Sean's family.
