“ I remember growing up with my sister, Sharon, on the farm in Pittsfield, PA with my grandmother and grandfather Johnson. Those were happy times. We ice-skated on the creek behind the farm. Sometimes we would sled by moonlight across the road into the field. We also had our favorite rock in the creek that we enjoyed sitting on. We worked hard on the farm, but our grandparents loved us and provided a good home for us. Both of us went to a four-room grammar school in Pittsfield. We also went to the United Brethren Church where we both trusted Jesus Christ as our Savior. I remember singing duets together at the church. We both attended and graduated from Youngsville High School. Both of us played basketball for the high school girls' team. Although I moved away from the area, we enjoyed getting together on many occasions. I will always love Sharon and look forward to seeing her again when we see Jesus.
