“ Gramma was the kindest soul you could ever meet. When I was going thru chemo, she brought me true organic grape juice because she was told I would need that to beat cancer. She dropped off grape juice for me every single week. She always had bags of things she was giving away to those in need. Always helping someone. And always sharing her love for Jesus. Rest in his arms Gramma. You've fought the good fight and you've kept the faith! Till we meet again... Love, your granddaughter, Deborah M

Your mother was a special lady!
Loved sneaking candy by filling her pant pockets. Will never forget her.
RIP and eat all the candy your heart desires*
