

Stanley C. Yancey

September 12, 1936 - June 21, 2026

Stanley C. Yancey, 89, of Jonestown, went home to be with his Lord and Savior on Sunday, June 21, 2026, at the Masonic Village surrounded by his loving family. He was the husband of Betty J. (Dove) Yancey. On June 2nd, they celebrated their 70th anniversary.

Born in Grantville on September 12, 1936, he was the son of the late George Yancey and Arbutus (Gibson) Elliot. Stanley retired from the former Raybestos in Manheim where he had been an industrial mechanic and supervisor of maintenance. Following his retirement, he worked for Yancey Auto Body for 20 years. He was a member of Calvary Chapel in Lebanon. He enjoyed fishing, building wooden cars and custom kitchens. He also enjoyed going out into the city and street witnessing. He will be remembered for his love for his wife and his family and their family gatherings.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his son Rodney T. and his wife Carmelina Yancey of Lebanon; daughters Robin L. wife of Scott Brandt of Lebanon, Kelly L. wife of Michael Bartlebaugh of Hershey and Dawn M. wife of Andrew Fogelsanger of Lebanon; brother Robert Yancey of Lebanon. Fifteen grandchildren and twenty-three great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a half-sister Betty.

Memorial services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, August 1, 2026, at Calvary Chapel, 740 Willow St., Lebanon. There will be a visitation one hour prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to his church or to the Lebanon Rescue Mission, 1223 Bittner Blvd, Lebanon, PA 17046.

“ I had the privilege to serve at work with him for 25 years at Yancey's Auto Body. He was always a positive influence on those that he went out to visit and take pizza orders or candy orders to for the company. I know he is celebrating in Heaven. You will be missed.
