

Susan Winters

March 20, 1945 - May 7, 2020

Susan Winters, 75, of Annville, died Thursday, May 7, 2020 at Hill Farm Estate.

Born in Lebanon on March 20, 1945, she was the daughter of the late Joseph S. and Mildred H. (Uhrich) Hartman. Susan graduated from Lebanon High School with the class of 1963. She was a homemaker, and enjoyed volunteering with the Red Cross, traveling to many disasters, and at the Hershey Medical Center Gift Shop. She enjoyed crossword puzzles, games, and cooking, especially being known for her tuna fish and pumpkin bread. Known as Bammy, her grandchildren were the light of her life, and her smile brightened every room.

Surviving are her sons Charles C. Winters (Jennifer) of Annville, Robert L. Winters (Kristin) of Fredericksburg; grandchildren Taylor, Mason, Jaxon, Van and Ellie; brother Joseph R. Hartman and sisters Mary C. Garrett and Jane L. Nye.

Services will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Red Cross PO Box 37839, Boone, IA 50037-0839 or to Hill Farm Estate 200 Kauffman Road, Annville, PA 17003.

“ Thinking of you guys (Winters Family) this Mother's Day. She really was like a "mom-away-from-mom" to me, for a good year or so. Will never forget her/ you guys (Uncle Dick, Chuck, Robbie)/ & that time, even though i haven't been close (enough) for awhile. Sorry for my absence & for the loss of your Wonderful Mom 💙💜... She'll be 'Forever Remembered!'

I remember Aunt Susie, along with my own Momma (Jane) taking me to my (Army) swearing in ceremony in Harrisburg, PA on Oct. 15, 1987. I'll never forget that warm and caring send off. It was hard to say goodbye then, just as it is difficult to say goodbye now. I'm so happy that we got to see her the Christmas before last to give her a hug 🤗. To an Awesome Aunt... may you stay in peace and a most loving embrace. Until we meet again...

Much Love and Many Hugs,

Danny, Gosia, Joey, & Olympia Nye (Colorado Springs)
