“ Sue was a great friend and confidant. We would laugh and talk nearly everyday at work. She was the highlight of my work day. I will miss her laugh and our talks. It isn't often you meet someone that you click with on so many levels, when you do, it is a gift. Sue was my gift. We could say anything to each other and it would never be taken personal, all in fun. She loved her family and adored her grand children. She will be sorely missed and I will think of her everyday. Love you Sue!

“ A tremendous loss of a good-hearted friend. She gave more to family and friends than you can imagine. Her laugh, sense of humor and compassion will be greatly missed. To have had her friendship was invaluable and she went to be with God too soon. . . I will miss you Susie-Q. I only hope they have York peppermint patties in Heaven

“ Sue was my "work mom." She was the one I went to when I needed to vent about something. She always made me the best treats and always had a funny story to tell. If someone was trying to give me trouble, she always had my back. Ill never forget her random phone calls during work to ask if I could meet her in the bathroom to quick give her a haircut. She always gave the best advice about things. She treated my son like her own grandson, and spoiled him with books and random toys that she knew he would love. The thing I loved most is she always "told it how she saw it," no matter how brutal it could be. I'm going to miss her like no other. RIP my very dear and true friend

“ Sue was my best friend for 37 years. It's difficult to foresee life without her and the things that made her unique. She always had the "scoop", provided the weather report, reported the pertinent local and national news, checked in on people to make sure they were ok, and listened if you needed to talk. She will leave a big void in my life and the lives of many. I am just grateful she is now pain free ....for I can learn how to cope with such great loss. My love and sympathy to her family.
