“ A woman who has touched so many lives with her strength, her courage and her love. No matter what was going on in life she would always make time for anyone. She was such a beautiful soul. She was a wonderful Mother, Grandmother, Sister, Aunt, and Friend. All of us who had the privilege of being a part of her life are so blessed. She has touched so many lives. She will never be forgotten. Hold tight to all the memories. She has given every one of us so many to smile about. Fly high Tammy. We love you and we miss you and we will never forget you!
