“ Posting a few pictures that make me smile. Tania was working in the UK, and visited us while we lived there....we had more than one Disney trip together when the girls were small....3 of us took a Fab 40 cruise and won our version of the Amazing Race Cozumel. Rest well, old friend.

“ I worked with Tania for only a short period of time starting in February. Tania was a great person, responsible and remained friendly all the time. During a recent teleconference at work, team members chatted up randomly online while waiting for other attendees to dial in, at one point Tania mentioned she had once toured around the world and had wonderful adventures in many foreign countries. It was great that she had this experience in her life which most other people do not. Tania, may you rest in peace.
