“ Mr. Weible was my all time favorite English teacher because he never criticized our mistakes and always make us do our very best in class. He will never be forgotten for everything he did for his students and his unwavering support.

“ Such a gentle and kind man! As students at Harrison Jr. High School we all had the pleasure of his courtship of our wonderful school secretary, Sandy; he was a class act. And as one of the many students he taught impeccable English to, we can all say he did his job with humor and sincerity. Thank you for guiding us, Mr. Weible; you will be missed.
