“ She was my k-4 teacher. She inspired me to be an amazing loving young lady that I am today. I got to know her and her family very well cuz my dad did a lot of work for her father in law and she was an amazing woman who impacted a lot of people that she met throughout the years of living. She put up a tough fight for those 15 years she always fought hard to kick cancer in the ass but of course cancer got the best of her but one good thing is that she is in a better place and not in pain or suffering anymore she will always be loved and never forgotten. I love you Mrs. Bare ❤️
