“ It was 1993 when I first met Tim at 6 o’clock in the morning for a men’s prayer group. For nearly 31 years, we bore each other’s burdens and concerns for our churches, families, the nation and each other.

Nothing draws men together more than knowing we can share our thoughts without judgment and pray for one another. Often, we fulfilled the biblical admonition to “rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with those weep,” Romans 12:15.

*I will miss him dearly.
