“ My memories of Tyler will always be sweet. The one memory that stands out is the cruise he and his mother were on with Joe and I. I was able to see who Tyler was from our ride to St Thomas seeing he was afraid of heights just as much as me to walking in t, o the cigar lounge and seeing my teenage nephew having conversation and enjoying himself with all the adults who quickly and obviously were taken in by Tyler and his kind ways. The last time I seen Tyler was in my home when he met up with his mother to give her a hand with something she needed. Tyler, I know you are resting in the arms of the Angel's. You are always going to be remembered with sweet memories. Love you, aunt Kim
