

Vivian Y. Ezell

September 19, 1926 - November 2, 2017

Vivian Y. Ezell, 91, of Lebanon, passed away on Thursday, November 2, 2017 at Spang Crest Manor.

Vivian was born in Lebanon on July 19, 1926 to the late Clark Yerger and Helen Buffamoyer. Vivian graduated from Lebanon Independent Borough School (Harrison). Vivian was a 1944 Lebanon High School graduate. She had retired as supervisor from RCA in Lancaster. She was the first woman to receive the title as supervisor while at RCA. She was the first and founding president of the Lebanon Valley Business Woman's Association, and was later awarded woman of the year for her service. In the years 1966 and 1967 she was named 1 of the 10 most popular female motorcycle riders in the United States of the American Motorcycle Association Members. She was a lifelong Motormaid. She was a member of the Lebanon Valley Motorcycle Club, where she served as secretary and awarded a life membership. She was a lifelong member and served as president of the Lebanon Senior Center. She also managed the craft room at the senior center for many years. She was an avid gardener, enjoyed crafting, and watching the birds.

Surviving are her children, Jack Ezell, Jr. of Lebanon, Michael Ezell of Lebanon, five grandchildren, and four great grandchildren.
