“ Dear Betty and Walter III, We were so sad to hear of Walt's unexpected death. You have our deepest sympathy. We have very fond memories of your whole family and recall that Walt, in addition to his excellent contributions to LVC and the broader community, was a great supporter and Christian servant in and through First UMC. It was a pleasure knowing and serving with him. God bless you with his loving care in the upcoming days.

“ Betty and Walter, My thoughts and prayers are with you during this sad time. Walt was a friend, who will be missed by the library and by me. Thanks so much for designating the library for donations in lieu of flowers. Walt was always so concerned that we had proper funding. I'm sure he would be pleased. Please let me know if there is anything at all I can do for you. Karla
