

Wayne R. Pittman

January 19, 1948 - July 14, 2012

Wayne R. Pittman, 64, of Lebanon died Saturday July 14, 2012 in the M. S. Hershey Medical Center. He was the husband of Barbara Light. Born in McConnellsburg on January 19, 1948, he was the son of the late Matthew Pittman and the late Ruth Burger Pittman Batdorff. He was employed for 39 years by the City of Harrisburg, working for the Harrisburg City Police Department as a maintenance mechanic. Wayne was a graduate of the Pittsburgh School for the Blind and Pennsylvania State University. He was an associate life member of the Fraternal Order of Police, a John Deere enthusiast, and loved Penn State. Surviving in addition to his wife are a son Michael A. husband of Michele Johnson of Camp Hill, a grandson David Johnson of Cheyenne, Wyoming, two great grandchildren, and a brother Kevin Pittman of McConnellsburg. He was preceded in death by a sister Patricia Himes. A Celebration of Life Service will be held on Saturday July 21, 2012 at 2:00 PM from the Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory, 618 E. Main Street, Annville. Interment will be held at the convenience of the family. Visitation will be held on Saturday from 1:30-2:00 PM prior to the service at the funeral home. Please omit flowers. Contributions may be made to the Salvation Army, 1031 Guilford Street, Lebanon, PA 17046 or an Animal Rescue of your choice or the charity of your choice in Wayne's memory.

Tribute Wall

LW

“ I had the wonderful opportunity to interview Wayne Pittman for my Website N2Entertainment net a few years ago. I shared my admiration and love with him about the group’s megahit , “Girl Watcher” and how much it meant to me whenever I heard it blasting from KMEN Radio station in my hometown of San Bernardino. He shared a lot about the blue eyed soul group and I clung to every exciting word. What a wonderful man and musician. R.I.P. Mr. Pittman. Play on in Heaven!

Lana Wilson-Combs - August 25, 2021 at 01:15 AM