

Wendy J. Queen

October 15, 1966 - July 1, 2011

Wendy J. Queen, 44, of Harrisburg, passed away on Friday, July 01, 2011, at her parents home, after a courageous battle with colon cancer. Born in Greensburg, on October 15, 1966, she was the daughter of Kenneth and Eloise Seltzer Queen of Annville. She worked for the PA Dept. of Health in the office of Public Health Preparedness as their Distance Learning Coordinator. While living on the West Shore, she was a member of the Aldersgate United Methodist Church, and was involved in the children's church and Bible School. While at home she attended the Bunker Hill Evangelical Congregational Church. She graduated from Bloomsburg University with her Masters Degree in Speech Pathology. She enjoyed photography, museums, history, hockey and especially the Steelers and Penguins. In addition to her parents she is survived by her companion and life coach Larry A. Mort of Archrock; Abigail, her pet beagle and her many family, friends and co-workers that meant so much to her. Funeral services will be held on Thursday, July 7, 2011, at 2:00 p.m. at the Bunker Hill Evangelical Congregational Church, Rt. 72 North of Lebanon. No viewing. Visitation will be held from 12:30 p.m. until the time of the service.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

NS

“ So sorry to her that Wendy has gone to meet our heavenly father so soon. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. God be with you always.

Nancy and Gary Stamm - July 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM