“ Dear Elsie and family, I was saddened to read in the Lancaster paper of Winston's passing. I still have memories of you both singing in the Lititz CoB choir and the void you left when you returned to Annville. May you be blessed by the memories of your years together. Joan Fyock Norris

“ To my dear brother... I remember you singing in the Midway Church of the Brethren choir growing up , along with Dad and other siblings. You shared God's love through your music. You are now singing with God's heavenly choirs of angels in his mighty kingdom. I truly believe that God works in mysterious ways and directed me up from my home in Northern Virginia on Saturday to be with you as your earthly life faded from us and God opened the gates to you so that you could have eternal life in his Heavenly Kingdom. I am so grateful that God allowed me to be with you and to be holding your hand as you entered into his kingdom. Praise be to God and to God be the glory. I remember when you and Elsie had the first grandchild in the family... Jeffrey. And, how proud you were as a father and Elsie as a mother, and also Mom and Dad as grandparents. Like many first grandchildren, Jeff got a lot of family focus and attention until other grandchildren came along and his little sister Debra came along also. What wonderful kids and grandchildren you have as one of your many legacies. You and Elsie had John and Bertha Heisey's first grandchild with Jeff and I had their last with Kara. I have fond memories of you and John playing football in high school as a proud Cornwall Miner and you playing the trombone in the band and John playing the tuba. You and John were the best football players the Heisey clan produced until Pete came along and he was number one. Many , many memories of family gatherings, and riding the flatbed truck up at the cabin in Wells boro and building the mountain of tractor inner tubes at Raystown lake , and playing King of the mountain on them. And the time you came to West Virginia along with your in-laws and we swam and played King of the raft in the one lake in Canaan Valley. If I remember correctly, you always won... Winston, there is so much more I would like to say but time does not allow it. You will be missed greatly but know that you are in God's hands and are reunited with loved ones in his kingdom. Your loving brother Andy
