“ Had the pleasure to be Zach's foreman, meant him on 2nd shift at the start of the New Chocolate factory, I hadn't known him a moment before that first day but felt like I knew him forever once we started talking. (Which was mostly about the outdoors) A man with family values and a kind heart, what more could you ask for in a man.

“ I met Zach on a job. Always willing to lend a hand and just an all around good person. I remember him talking about duck hunting a few times. It was interesting to me since I have never hunted ducks before.

Rest easy young man.

“ The man behind the camera always knew how to bring out the best smiles in us. We're going to miss the game nights, ice cream runs, and long drives. The Lord, in his kindness, gave you to us as a sweet and joyous friend and you became like a brother to my husband. We love you and miss you.

I had the pleasure of assisting Zach with his mortgage financing needs with the purchase of his first home back in January. What a fine, respectful young man. I am so incredibly sorry for your loss. You should be very proud of all he accomplished in his short years here on earth. May you keep the memories close and find comfort in those memories.
